YACHT & MOTORBOAT STATEMENT OF LOSS/CLAIM FORM

Please complete legibly in BLOCK CAPITALS

- Please note it is your responsibility to act as though uninsured at all times and you should take all necessary steps to safeguard the vessel, minimize the loss and prevent further deterioration.
- Underwriters' liability is limited to the reasonable cost of repairs. For your own protection it is wise to obtain at least two written quotations and underwriters' consent before repairs commence. In the event of an emergency repair affecting the vessel's seaworthiness following a casualty you should act as though uninsured.
- You must not admit liability to any third party without underwriters' consent.
- Until underwriters are in possession of all the facts concerning the incident/loss they will be unable to confirm whether they are liable under the terms and conditions of the policy.
